

Resource Connection Success Stories

Taco Bell

Taco Bell has gone the extra mile in making Resource Connection clients feel comfortable. Currently our clients assist with cleaning tables, prep, and overall maintenance of the store. Taco Bell has taken our Resource Connection clients in Huntington, Wabash, and Whitley Counties in as one of the family. They have made our clients feel appreciated and Resource Connection has helped them succeed as well.

Johnson Junction

Johnson Junction, in Huntington, has employed Mary Searles for over one year. She is responsible for parking lot maintenance and stocking shelves in the store. Mary works five days a week for an hour each day at Johnson junction and spends the rest of her time in OutSource Manufacturing at Pathfinder Services, Inc. Johnson Junction has worked with the clients of Resource Connection for over four years.

Golden Corral

On July 11th 2008 Marla Fahl, Employment Specialist/Benefit Counselor for Resource Connection, took one of her customers, JayJa, to the Golden Corral off of Maysville Road in Fort Wayne. The manager, Jose, came out and met with Marla and JayJa. Jose offered a position to JayJa the same day. JayJa has been working successfully with Golden Corral for the past four months. This job placement has affected JayJa in a very positive way. JayJa loves his uniform and having the responsibilities of a job. He feels good about himself and takes pride in his position.
